A Woman Alone Travel Tales

The Unsavvy Traveler includes hilarious stories of trips gone horribly wrong, while A Woman Alone contains stories of intrepid women traveling solo. The first is the more unusual of the two, vividly describing experiences that are both horrendous and humorous, including getting lost in the jungle, being chased by a bear, and being questioned by the police on the suspicion of taking photos of a nude man sunbathing.

This book was just as it states, travel tales. Most of the tales involved the people and places the women experienced. The book didn't claim to be a travel guide or a compilation of funny tales, but failed. It was a story of what can happen to the average traveler if she opens her heart to experiences.
