Life Of The Mind

The Life of the Mind was the final work of Hannah Arendt, and was unfinished at the time of her death. Designed to be in three parts, only the first two had been completed and the first page of the third part was in her typewriter the evening of the day she suddenly died. The unfinished work was edited by her friend, the author, Mary McCarthy and published in two volumes in 1977 and 1978.

The Life of the Mind by Hannah Arendt - Goodreads

An internal life is of very little consequence in the practical world and theoretical truths usually take a back seat to human experience. The mere internal life of the mind is a lonely life devoid of affection and lasting purpose. It is a life with full intention, but with very little action; it's full of light, but with very little warmth.
