11/25/2015 Love Sick Jake Coburn 3/5 Stars Love Sick, Coburn's second novel, will suck you into his dramatic, fast paced love story. It is a read for one sitting, simply because it does not let you put it down. Although, being a short read it also brings a weaker story line, which results in the characters having little depth.

LoveSick by Jake Coburn (9780525473831)

Jake Coburn's book Love Sick was the first of his novels that I have read. To be honest the story line captured me! It is not every day that you read a book about a young boy hired to keep track of a wealthy man's severely bulimic daughter. Ted's life is forever changed the second he crashed his car.

Jake Coburn starts LOVESICK with a teaser: he writes as if the characters told him their real story. Certainly the story of two addicts trying to survive in college could be true, but it is unique in that Ted is hired by Erica's father to watch her at college. She has bulimia and her super-rich dad wants to be sure she is healthy in her dorm.
