Murder at the Bridge: An Exham on Sea Cosy Murder Mystery ...

A murder occurs in the middle of a bridge game (the victim being the dummy, who stepped away, and really? People are fine with being called the dummy?), and as it turns out bridge - an integral part of the story which takes up a decent chunk of the book - is, to the uninitiated, every single bit as incomprehensible as The Nine Tailors' bell-ringing.

Murder at Bridge (a Mystery Novel) by Anne Austin

"Murder at the Bridge" is Frances Evesham's fifth Exham on Sea mystery. A relatively short and fast-reading novel, it is packed with twists, turns, events, red herrings, and genuine clues. The suspects include the farm couple the murder victim worked for, a local cult leader and his wife, people the young man might have been blackmailing, and more.
