My Year Of Meats A
My Year of Meats is my second Ruth Ozeki and the author's debut novel. I've read and loved A Tale for the Time Being. I like the satire of American and Japanese commercialism and reality TV. The ugliness of the US meat industry is not new to me, but Ozeki has told a good story. Anti-racism is woven into the fabric of book.

"Meat is the Message." I wrote these words just over a year ago, sitting right here in my tenement apartment in the East Village of New York City in the middle of the worst snowstorm of the season, or maybe it was the century—on TV, everything's got to be the worst something, and after a while you stop paying attention. Especially that year.
