Barbara Erskine - River of Destiny

This is my first foray into Barbara Erskine territory and I'm delighted to report that I will be back for more! I am a big fan of dual time-frame novels and River of Destiny has not just two but three different time frames - one set in the distant past in Anglo-Saxon times, one in the more recent past in the Victorian era and finally, a contemporary narrative set in Suffolk.

I have only just discovered Barbara Erskine! As a member of a book club in my village, I decided to suggest River of Destiny to the group as our next read. I purchased it from Waitrose in Colchester as part of a '3 for 2' deal. The name was somehow familiar but I knew nothing more than this. I am absolutely hooked!

Barbara Erskine - River of Destiny -The First 2 Weeks

Bottom line? In "River of Destiny," author Barbara Erskine departs from her usual themes of revenge and conventional religion versus paganism and concocts a three-pronged storyline where the past definitely effects the present. Yet, like a Moebius strip, the revelations of the NOW salve and substantiate the dramas of long ago. Recommended.
