Business administration - Wikipedia

As a legal concept, administration is a procedure under the insolvency laws of a number of common law jurisdictions, similar to bankruptcy in the United States.It functions as a rescue mechanism for insolvent entities and allows them to carry on running their business. The process - in the United Kingdom colloquially called being "under administration" - is an alternative to liquidation or ...

Administration (law) - Wikipedia

The first objective of any administration is to rescue the company (as opposed to the business that the company carries on) so that it can continue trading as a going concern (paragraph 3(1)(a), Schedule B1, Insolvency Act 1986 (IA 1986)).If the rescue of the company is impossible, the administrator must aim to achieve a better result for the company's creditors as a whole than would be likely ...
