WINDOW SEAT VIEW© I used to travel by plane fairly often. I always selected the window seat. There existed an transcendent view of our planet that simply transformed my flat-world perspective into a three dimensional wonder. While the movie-de-jour played on, the window seat filled me with awe. The planet below astonished with its majesty. From 35,000 feet the Rocky Mountain watershed ...

Back then, the window seat was the envy of all travellers, more sought after by passengers than a seat in Parliament by our greedy politicians. As a kid, I played my cards well. I'd often move through the crowd in a packed train - mostly the Churchgate-bound local, when dad took me to the movies at Eros - and stood right in front of the window.
